THE PRES SAYS

Happy new year to all,

May 2021 be a better year than 2021. It is looking like a return to near normal as far as Club activities are concerned.

It was great to see members in person at the Christmas Party in December, our first face to face event since the General Meeting on March 2020, held at ARB. Thanks to all who attended and to Santa for his appearance for the kids. As there had been no other opportunity this year, there was also a brief presentation of our annual awards. Thanks to Dave and Allie Hamann for arranging this. Congratulations to Dave Hamann and Shez Tedford, our Clubman and Clubwoman of the year for 2020. The other recipients are published elsewhere in the magazine.

We will hold our first General Meeting for 2021 on Wednesday, 10th February at the Clubrooms at Abe Wood Reserve. There will be a barbeque at 6.30, followed by the meeting at 7.30 as usual. Under the current COVID restrictions the Clubrooms have a capacity of 48 attendees. This will not be a problem as our normal numbers are less than this. I look forward to kicking off the year with a good attendance.

In order to re-establish our club activities we will be running regular trips. Already Ross Barry has run a successful Australia Day Trip near Mt Buffalo and Keith Murdoch a day trip in the Otways. We have further trips planned for the March Labour Day weekend and at Beachport over Easter. We expect to run what will be our 10th anniversary event (in the 11th year) at Moonambel on Queens Birthday weekend and we are hoping to arrange a longer trip to the Flinders Ranges later in the year. There will also be a reschedule of the Little desert trip which was deferred due to fires in Little Desert National Park and a return of the annual snow trip.

As always, anyone who is interested in running a trip, with or without assistance, or has ideas about a particular region should contact our Trip Coordinator Dave Hamann, myself or a member of the committee.

I look forward to seeing as many of you as possible at the General Meeting.

Cheers
Geoff

AUSTRALIA DAY WEEKEND AWAY 2021

22ND— 26TH JANUARY 2021
AH YOUNGS CAMPGROUND, MT BUFFALO
WORDS & PHOTOS: GEOFF DAVEY

The initial plan was to base camp at the Smoko Campground near Bright, however we learned that the Alpine Classic Cycling event was on that weekend in Bright and that it would be one of the busiest weekends of the year. We therefore relocated to Ah Youngs Camp on the Buckland Valley Road about 15km south of Porpunkah. Geoff Davey and Geoff and Sharon Van Ingen travelled up on Thursday to reserve an area in the campground. This was a good thing in retrospect because even this campground was very busy.

Ross led the main party up the following day and we formed a ring of camps around a fire pit to create our own private area. This faced bush on one side, so we were hardly aware of the other campers. The campground itself is well grassed and there is short walk down to some nice swimming holes on the Buckland River. These were well utilised over the weekend as the weather was hot, in the mid 30's each day.

Friday afternoon was relaxed with the second group setting up camp followed by a dip in the river to cool down and later refreshments under the shady trees at camp. This was a great way for the group to interact and get to know each other. The forward scouting group had collected firewood the day before which made the day even easier. After dinner and as the sun retreated over the hills, the fire was duly lit and the focus shifted to a circle around the campfire for an appropriately convivial evening. We did discover that mosquitoes love Dale, but Dale doesn't love mosquitoes. Also that he has a problem with dexterity resulting in considerable difficulty separating mosquito coils!

Saturday was to be our big touring day with a drive up the iconic Blue Rag Range Track as its showpiece.

In an attempt to avoid the heat we made a relatively early start, rolling out of camp at about 8.30am. This was a little later than Ross had hoped, but it was billed as a cruisy weekend after all. While Blue Rag track is not difficult, there are a few steep sections which can be a bit daunting for relative beginners. Fortunately Geoff D had taken Geoff and Sharon V out for a "training run" on Friday morning before the main group arrived so they were better prepared.

In keeping with the spirit of the trip, we stopped for coffee and some sightseeing in Harrietville on the way. From there it was up the Great Alpine Road towards Mt Hotham for some photo opportunities. The degree of difficulty was increased by the many cyclists from the Alpine Classic event who were also ascending the mountain at the same time. After taking in the views and some photos we returned down the mountain to the Dargo High Plains Road which leads to Blue Rag Range Track. There are spectacular views on the track which were enjoyed by all, particularly as everyone became relaxed enough to take their eyes off the road immediately in front of them! We had lunch at the Blue Rag trig point and took in the vista.

After lunch we returned to the bitumen at the Great Alpine Road intersection which we reached at about 2.00pm. There was a team meeting to decide whether we returned directly to camp for an early afternoon or continued off road on the Twins Track which branches at the same intersection. To my surprise all members of the group voted to continue off road, demonstrating that Ross hadn't overreached his brief! As we continued it was clear that the overall pace of the convoy was increasing through the day, reflecting an increase in confidence. Towards the end of Twins Track, the trip leader took an unplanned left turn to the helipad at Mt Murray. This was a long steep ascent which was a little outside our "easy track" brief. However everyone made it up without difficulty to be greeted by magnificent 360 degree views at the summit.

Once we returned to Twins Track it was an easy return to Selwyn Creek Road where we topped up with firewood and continued north and back to camp, arriving at about 4.30pm. This was a pretty long day but was enjoyed by all with no one put outside their comfort zone.

Sunday was a day for the ladies. After a late start it was off to the Gapstead winery for a few white wines overlooking the vineyard. From there we had lunch in the Porepunkah Pub, followed by a walk to the river. Andrew, Tyler and Holly stayed on for a swim with their cousins, who by chance were staying in the same campground and were also lunching at the pub. The rest returned to camp for a lazy afternoon which largely consisted of sitting in the river at camp to cool off.

Unexpectedly that afternoon however, the group did in the course of business save three lives! Tim, Peter and Geoff D were standing with their backs to a group of young Asian girls who were getting into the water from a shallow rocky section upstream. Soon after the girls were splashing and squealing behind our backs but no one took much notice until Dale yelled out for us to turn around because the girls were drowning. Sure enough one of the girls disappeared in front of Tim and did not resurface. He managed to reach out and grab her with some assistance from Peter. The girl near me was also in difficulty so I helped her to the edge of the river, a matter of 1-2 meters. The third more or less scrambled herself to the edge with some help from Peter. We are expecting our Australia Day awards next year!

Monday morning John and Karen and Geoff and Sharon returned home as they had other commitments. There was also the forecast of rain for Tuesday and the prospect of a wet pack up on Tuesday which made it a little easier for them to leave a day early. Alison arranged to have lunch with her son Jack who was camping at Mount Beauty so Peter jumped in with Geoff. Dale joined Tim and we set off with a smaller convoy of 4 vehicles.

We headed south on Buckland Valley Road and then onto Scotchman Creek Track. Our original destination was Lake

Cobbler but Andrews Nissan started making some worrying noises from the rear axle area. We stopped to sort it out but the collective brains trust couldn't agree whether the sound was coming from the left or the right wheel bearing. Long story short, we took both wheels off and it was neither! Tim eventually worked out that it was (my terminology might not be right here) the cover on the diff at the back of the tail shaft? Anyway that was rubbing and causing the noise at the front of the diff, which explains our inability to localize the sound to one side. Tim did some minor surgery with a hammer which helped. We were then confident that it was not terminal and continued. Due to the delay we abandoned the Lake Cobbler plan and headed up Mount Buggery Track (not as bad as it sounds) and onto Durling Track to the Buffalo River Road. We stopped at Manna Gum Bush camp for lunch and a swim. After lunch we continued north to partially circumnavigate Lake Buffalo. From there it was back south to Dandongadale, then east across the Goldie Spur Track which takes you across the south side of Mount Buffalo and back to Buckland Valley Road. The scenery across the spur is spectacular.

At the end of the track we stopped to top up on firewood for a big fire on our last night, only to learn on return to camp that it was a total fire ban! Bummer! It was very hot so we drowned our sorrows in the river and later settled around the fire pit for a "virtual fire" and evening of music.

Tuesday morning the forecast was for rain. There was light rain overnight but little before about 7.30 am. Some were packed relatively dry. Most packed up before it was too wet. Geoff had his camper trailer and delayed packing until it was a bit late. His became a very wet pack up, oops! Ross, Tim, Andrew and Dale were packed and left camp at about 8am. Geoff, Peter and Alison left a bit later at 9am. Both groups experienced very heavy rain in quite different places on the way home. Andrew had some electrical gremlins in his trailer, but all made it home safely, if not a little wet.

The aim of the trip was to keep things social, base camp in relative comfort and focus on touring and scenery rather than technical driving. The trip was very successful and was enjoyed by both the more experienced members and the relative new comers alike.

Thanks to Ross for leading the trip. This is a slightly different format to many of our tips, but one that we can revisit in the future if there is enough interest.

CHRISTMAS PARTY & PRESENTATIONS

DECEMBER 6TH 2020

WORDS: DANNY SPARKS-COUSINS | PHOTOS: SALLY SPARKS-COUSINS

It was great to see such a good turnout for the club Christmas party—our first real social event since the COVID restrictions. Although the day was a little windy and cool, it didn't stop us all from having a great time.

The Hamman's plus Keith & Belinda had done a top job of setting up the clubrooms for us all to have a relaxing afternoon out, quite a different experience to being locked down in COVID. It was a relief to catch up with fellow club members—whilst our top shelf barman Kelvin made sure everyone kept well hydrated. Mark Mensch also helped out with a cameo appearance!

Hot spuds and lashings of toppings courtesy of Mark & Nicole at Country Baked Potatoes went down a treat for a typical Victorian summer's day. A few beers, sensational food and stories to catch up on kept everyone entertained, with the kids playing outside and having fun. A visit from Santa with gifts for the kids topped off lunch, before our presentations for the 2019/20 year were awarded.

LET'S GET PLANNING

The COVID rules related to camping and four wheel driving now pose few restrictions to our trips. Let's all make 2021 our best yet!

Some trip ideas to get you started

- Run your first Mystery trip
- Organise a simple 4WD day trip
- Plan for the next remote area trip
- Return to your favourite destination
- Get away on an overnight camping trip
- Be social and have a 2WD day and a BBQ
- Try your luck and visit to a new destination

There has also been some interest in a 'weekend with more comfort'

- Greater emphasis on comfortable camping – caravan parks, campsites with good facilities
- Nearby points of interest—visit the town, winery, café, restaurants & historic areas
- Accommodation in caravans, campers, cabins or camping
- Access to a tourist drive with great scenery & places of interest—this could include an easy 4WD track but this might not be the highlight

If you have ideas for a location, venue, or a trip you would like to see, contact Dave Hamann, Geoff Davey or a member of the committee.

KNOW THE COMMITTEE

ROSS BARRY

ORDINARY MEMBER

I joined the club around 2006/2007.

I owned a GQ Patrol before I joined the club and after doing some four wheel driving in my late teens then getting back into it after purchasing the GQ I joined the club a couple years later to look at more adventures. And still own it today.

Being separated with 3 young children the club gave some great opportunities to spend a day trip with the kids and see more of our bush land. The club has been great with kids and families well accommodated for.

Once I started heading into the Victorian high country I kept getting drawn back there, and it has become my favorite place to head.

I have managed to do a trip to Beachport with Trevor and Julie Brocks which was a great week of driving in the dunes and in the beach. I will definitely be trying to head there again.

The Otway Antics, Sokil Scramble and Moonambel events have always been a great events, and I look forward to more.

I have only recently been to the Big Desert and didn't realize it was so close! Unfortunately I just missed out on the Little Desert trip with fires being there. This trip will have to happen though.

Future destinations for me include Cape York, the Outback and more trips to the High Country.

The club has some great people who are always willing to help others and there is plenty of knowledge within. I have just joined to committee to help support the club and share some of the knowledge I have been taught to new and other members as needed.

See you on the tracks and trips.
